

SO THAT OR IN CASE?

SO THAT : We use "so that" to talk about purpose of something.

IN CASE : We use "in case" to tell the reason of something that might happen.

❖ Fill in the blanks with so that or in case to complete the sentences.

1

You should set your alarm clock _____ you can't get up on time.

2

Let's take the underground _____ we can reach the meeting before 8:30.

3

Pam should check her essay _____ there are some grammar mistakes in it.

4

I think we should keep the birthday cake in the fridge _____ it gets spoiled.

5

David should save some money for the summer _____ he can go on a holiday.

6

I'm going to the concert on Saturday _____ I can listen to my favourite singer.

7

Mrs.Hills will buy candles and a flash light _____ there is an electricity cut.

8

I want to buy a microwave _____ I can heat food in a very short time.

9

You should get the doctor's phone number _____ you need to telephone him.

10

Lucy bought some flour and eggs _____ she can make a cake for the guests.

11

I think I will take a shower _____ I can have a good night sleep.

12

Don't forget to take a mosquito repellent _____ there are mosquitos at the camping area.

13

We will organize a campaign _____ students can learn how to protect the environment.

14

Mr.Booth put a fire extinguisher in his kitchen _____ there is a fire at home.

15

My mother has put some bread and olives at the kitchen table _____ I get hungry at night.

16

Benjamin brought his music player to the party _____ the guests can listen to songs and dance.

SO THAT OR IN CASE? ANSWER KEY

SO THAT : We use "so that" to talk about purpose of something.

IN CASE : We use "in case" to tell the reason of something that might happen.

❖ Fill in the blanks with so that or in case to complete the sentences.

1

You should set your alarm clock in case you can't get up on time.

2

Let's take the underground so that we can reach the meeting before 8:30.

3

Pam should check her essay in case there are some grammar mistakes in it.

4

I think we should keep the birthday cake in the fridge in case it gets spoiled.

5

David should save some money for the summer so that he can go on a holiday.

6

I'm going to the concert on Saturday so that I can listen to my favourite singer.

7

Mrs.Hills will buy candles and a flash light in case there is an electricity cut.

8

I want to buy a microwave so that I can heat food in a very short time.

9

You should get the doctor's phone number in case you need to telephone him.

10

Lucy bought some flour and eggs so that she can make a cake for the guests.

11

I think I will take a shower so that I can have a good night sleep.

12

Don't forget to take a mosquito repellent in case there are mosquitos at the camping area.

13

We will organize a campaign so that students can learn how to protect the environment.

14

Mr.Booth put a fire extinguisher in his kitchen in case there is a fire at home.

15

My mother has put some bread and olives at the kitchen table in case I get hungry at night.

16

Benjamin brought his music player to the party so that the guests can listen to songs and dance.